

Encore

ATLANTA

ATLANTA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Robert Spano
Music Director

Donald Runnicles
Principal Guest Conductor

gallery ASO

1) LATIN CONNECTION Members of the ASO, the ASO's Talent Development Program (TDP) and local musicians teamed up to perform for the Latin American Association (LAA) on February 31 as part of an ASO outreach program for over 200 attendees. (L-R) Executive Director of the LAA Maritza Pichon, ASO violinist Juan Ramirez, violinist Logan Anderson (TDP), ASO violinist Kenn Wagner, local violinist Norman Bernal, bassist Andrea DeMarcus (TDP), ASO cellist Karen Freer, and ASOVP and General Manager John Sparrow.

2) OUR MAN FLINT! Jere Flint, who wears three hats as ASO Staff Conductor, ASYO Music Director and ASO cellist, was named Public Broadcasting Atlanta's Lexus Leader of the Arts for April. The award recognizes the contributions of Atlanta's cultural leaders.

3) SERVING THE COMMUNITY ASO Principal Harpist Elisabeth Remy received a prestigious 11Alive Community Service Award on April 1. The award honors outstanding local volunteers who demonstrate selfless devotion for the betterment of the community.

4) CLASSICAL COLLABORATORS ASO Music Director Robert Spano and composer Jennifer Higdon discuss the ASO's most recent recording, which features the maestro conducting two Higdon works: Concerto for Orchestra and City Scape. City Scape was the first work commissioned by the ASO under the leadership of Mr. Spano and was premiered by the Orchestra in November 2002.

